Travel Montana Policy on Sending Out 3rd Party Publications

Travel Montana will only send out publications produced and printed by itself to consumers unless the following requirements are met:

1. Any discussion of sending out third party material is discussed as part of the original Travel Montana partnership agreement.
2. The partnership agreement is done in conjunction with a specific Travel Montana marketing effort.
3. A specific packet will be created as a fulfillment piece for only the marketing effort specified. No individual 3rd party pieces will be sent separately.
4. The additional cost if any of sending out the 3rd party publication will be borne by the 3rd party.
